

LBJ'S "GREAT SOCIETY"

pendent states adhering to common standards of justice and international conduct and subjecting the use of force to the rule of law; a world which has achieved general and complete disarmament under effective international control; and a world in which adjustment to change takes place in accordance with the principles of the United Nations."

The ADA puts it this way:

"Our ultimate goal is the creation of a world community under law . . . and the rule of law should be support of the U. N."

Vice-President-elect Hubert Humphrey was the author of the U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency Act. Former Senator Humphrey, a former ADA National Chairman, was also Senate floor manager of the 1964 Civil Rights Bill and on Dec. 12 was put in charge of the "war on poverty" by LBJ. Poverty in America and the "vigorous enforcement" of the 1964 Civil Rights Act are two of the ADA's primary concerns in regard to U.S.A. domestic policy.

Leon Keyserling, an ADA Vice Chairman, and Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors in the Truman Administration, has just released a 150 page report entitled "Progress or Poverty," which calls for a $156 billion federal spending budget by 1975. This report was issued by the leftist Conference on Economic Progress, whose national committee includes (in addition to ADAer Leon Keyserling) George Meany, AFL-CIO President; former Judge Thurman Arnold; Auto Workers President Walter Reuther; and James G. Patton, National Farmers Union President. Reuther & Patton are also ADA Vice Chairmen.

James G. Patton is also listed on the board of directors of a secret political organization virtually unknown to the general public—The Council For A Livable World.

The Council For A Livable World very possibly operated in your state, attempting to select your U. S. Senators and Representatives last fall. The Council has money counted in the millions of dollars. It has demonstrated in the past it is willing to spend as much as is needed to elect the kind of Senators and Representatives it describes as "thoughtful" men. By "thoughtful" the Council For A Livable World means men who agree with its position and will work to achieve its aims.

What are these goals? Briefly, they include unilateral disarmament, stripping the United States of its muscle, turning this country into a fourth-rate power at the mercy of the international wolfpack (money-changers).

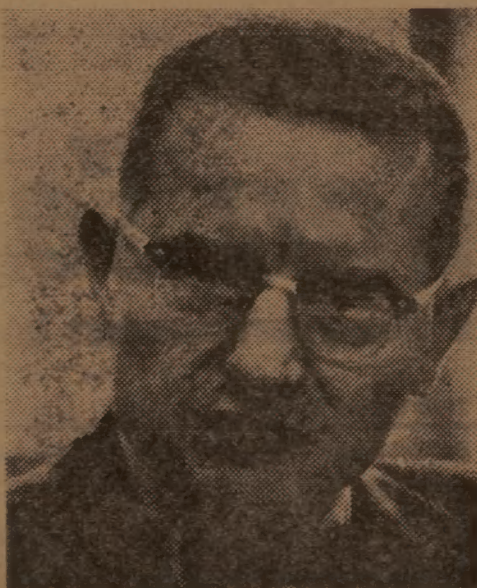

GREAT SOCIETY—DISARMED U. S.

To achieve its goal—a totally defenseless United States—the Council has adopted the troika approach: (a) Infiltration of the Arms Control & Disarmament Agency; (b) Extragovernmental conference with the Red scientists; (c) Buying U. S. Elections.

Membership of the Council (founded in June 1962 by the late Leo Szilard) is largely from academic circles. The U. S. Arms Control & Disarmament Agency has sponsored many research projects and Council members have contributed heavily to these (at taxpayers' expense!). A few examples:

ACDA/IR-8, "Political Control of an International Police Force," by Hans Morgenthau (ADA National Board member), and adviser to Council For A Livable World under contract to the Institute For Defense Analysis. ACDA/WEG-9, "Factors on Arms Inspection and Reassurance," by Bernard Feld, president of Council For A Livable World.

Council founder Szilard had teamed up with Bertrand Russell (England) and Cyrus Eaton (USA) to form the "Pugwash" conference, where American scientists exchange ideas with their Iron Curtain colleagues. The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee in a staff report during the 1st Session, 87th Congress, stated:

Paul Samuelson, Jew economist heading task force for permanent prosperity in LBJ's Great Society; advocates yearly unbalanced budgets and world money.

"In most of the contacts that have thus far taken place, the free world scientists, although they have sometimes argued strongly, have not been able to compete with their communist counterparts. The extensive use which the communist propaganda apparatus has made of the Pugwash conferences is proof enough of this . . ."

Evidence has also been uncovered that the Council For A Livable World has been attempting to swing primary as well as general elections. A Harrison, Pa. news dispatch detailed contributions received by Genevieve Blatt, a 1964 Democratic contender for the Senatorial nomination. In her filed statement with the Secretary of State (Pa.) Miss Blatt listed a $1,000 contribution to her campaign by the Council For A Livable World. When the Council filed its lobbying expense statement with the Secretary of the Pennsylvania Senate for the 2nd quarter of 1964 an interesting "lobbying" expense item appeared: "Genevieve Blatt, Philadelphia, $1,000." After a closely contested primary battle, Miss Blatt was finally declared the winner. The Council's contribution was the second biggest to Miss Blatt's primary campaign fund.

ENTER DAVE DUBINSKY??

When President Johnson was in New York City for the last rites of the late Herbert Hoover (Oct. 1964), an anonymous labor leader visited him at the Waldorf Astoria and predicted a 2,000,000 plurality on Nov. 4. (The margin was 2,400,000). The same labor leader told Bobby Kennedy that he would be elected Senator of New York State by over 600,000 votes. (He was!) Mr. Anonymous also predicted a Hubert Humphrey-Bobby Kennedy national ticket in '68!

At about 10:00 P. M. on the evening of Monday, Dec. 7, 1964, an animated conversation took place outside the State Dining Room of the White House. History had brought together two former school teachers and an ex-garment cutter who conducted his first strike against his own father's bakery at age 15. President Lyndon Johnson, Socialist Prime Minister Harold Wilson of England, and International Ladies Garment Workers President David Dubinsky. LBJ had been kidding Dubinsky, who is an ADA National Board member, about not getting out more votes in N. Y. (Johnson won in N. Y. by the largest plurality in history). Dubinsky replied: "The trouble with you, sir, is that you wanted to win by acclamation."

Senator Strom Thurmond (S. C.) has correctly appraised the so-called "Great Society," personified by the Democratic Party, as having "forsaken the people . . . repudiated constitutional government, and is now leading this country down the road towards a socialistic dictatorship . . ."

Perhaps the Humphrey-Dubinsky-Schlesinger - Keyserling - Schary - Reuther ADA "democratic" planners should recall the words of President Lincoln:

"We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven, we have been preserved these many years in peace and prosperity, we have grown in numbers, wealth and power as no other nation has ever grown."

"But we have forgotten God. We have forgotten the gracious hand which preserved us in peace and multiplied and enriched and strengthened us; and we have vainly imagined, in the deceitfulness of our hearts, that all these things were produced by some superior wisdom and virtue of our own."

"Intoxicated with unbroken success, we have become too self-sufficient to feel the necessity of redeeming and preserving grace, too proud to pray to the God that made us."

LBJ'S Message to the People

By Congressman James B. Utt

President Johnson made his State of the Union Address on the evening of the opening of Congress. It was made at 9:00 P.M., Eastern Standard Time, in order to blanket the Nation during prime TV time on all networks. In no sense was it a State of the Union Message, but rather a glossary of promises for the future. It was one of the best "snow jobs" ever given. There were more "goodies" offered the public than you will find in the Sears Roebuck Catalog, including the harness section, and Norman Thomas, head of the Socialist Party of America, could not have conceived of a more enchanting Utopia.

The facts, however, do not square with the words in the message. The President credited the last four years with having produced everything that America has today. He showed an abysmal ignorance regarding the International Communist Conspiracy. He invited co-existence with the good communists, while attacking the bad communists of Red China. Let there be no mistake, there is no such thing as good communists and their conspiracy is to destroy the free world, whatever is left of it, and the United States is the prime target.

He said that the communist world was falling apart, and that no "NEW NATION" within the last four years had become communist. What a classic in semantics and dialectic materialism! It revolves around the word "NEW," because there are nations that have become communist in the last four years, but they don't happen to be "NEW NATIONS." Indonesia has become communist, but Indonesia is not a "NEW NATION." Uganda has become communist, but it is not a "NEW NATION." Laos has become communist, but it is not a "NEW NATION," and there are others.

The President said that he had resolved our differences with our neighbors in the Western Hemisphere. Nothing could be further from the truth. We still have vital differences with Castro's Cuba, with Panama and other Western Hemisphere Nations that have not been resolved. He praised the Alliance For Progress, which is probably the
